VI. TA REPORT

1. We had a water leak in the Lister's Office. No significant damage, has been fixed.
2. Representative from Clark's Trucks will be here at the next Selectboard meeting. Roland and Min will be attending as well.
3. We had planned to pave Lower Bridge Street this year but the Village called today and think they may be fixing a water line in that area this spring. If so, we will wait until that is complete before we pave.
4. Marcial started today. He is currently working toward recertification of his Paramedic License. Marcial has asked that we cancel the NEMS contract as of April 1, 2015 There will be meet and greet at the Rescue Building on Thursday at 7:00PM.. He will be attending the next Selectboard meeting. Mickey asked if we had an idea[answer] of what we were planning to use the additional $75,000 for in the rescue budget in case it was brought up at Town Meeting. Dan said he was under the assumption it was for anyone of the options that we discussed. Graham noted that because they money is there doesn't mean we need to spend it and maybe should the let the Department Head decide what is needed for the department to operate efficiently.
5. Todd received a grant for the Park & Ride near the Library. Tricia received the Art Grant she applied for.
